

Connecting Children with Nature

*A Workshop for Educators — Thursday June 18, 2009
The Plains Conservation Center*

Richard Louv's book Last Child in the Woods propelled the "No Child Left Inside" movement. Understand the history of the movement and its relationship to education. Discover how to get students outside academically and physically while designing lessons to get students outside on school grounds

Hands-on activities will help participants:

- Participate in activities outside that encompass history, math, and literacy standards
- Visit an 1880's reproduction sod village
- Enjoy a wagon ride to farther reaches of the prairie and science lesson

When : Thursday, June 18, 2009 8:00 am – 4:30 pm

Where: Plains Conservation Center (see www.plainsconservationcenter.org for map)
21901 East Hampden Avenue
Aurora, CO 80013

Workshop fee: $70 (½ Colorado School of Mines recertification credit available for $30 payment for credit is on the day of class)

Bring: Sack lunch, water bottle, sturdy shoes, clothes for outdoor activities, including close-toed shoes
Check for $30 payable to Colo. School of Mines if credit is desired.
